Conversation: Errors in the publication of your manuscript ...

Ms J. Jordan,

We informed our universities about the IJFP issue and in preparation for further action we have posted on the web the following documents:

1. Calude posted on his web page
www.cs.auckland.ac.nz/~cristian
the text:

IJTP published this paper
[<http://www.cs.auckland.ac.nz/~cristian/HGCunpermittedpublication.pdf>]
without proofreading, without the permission of the authors, and erroneously included Karl Svozil as an author (through no fault of his own) on this and five other articles in that volume. The paper [<http://www.cs.auckland.ac.nz/~cristian/0402197.pdf>]
is the correct version.

2. Calude posted the incorrect version of the IJTP publication with a banner at the top with the previous disclaimer at:
<http://www.cs.auckland.ac.nz/~cristian/HGCunpermittedpublication.pdf>

3. The CDMTCS research report
<http://www.cs.auckland.ac.nz/CDMTCS/researchreports/235cris.pdf>
and the eprint
arXiv:quant-ph/0402197 v6 11 Jul 2006
have a footnote with the same text.

4. Stay posted on his webpage
<http://math.ucr.edu/~mike>
the same text as in 1.

Regards,

C. Calude and M. Stay
