Advantages and Disadvantages

Advantages

- Creates a central pool of content
- Everyone can contribute
- Easy to use
- Quick to develop material

Disadvantages

- No quality control
- Anyone can contribute
- Information changes rapidly
- Vandalism a possibility

Making it work

- Everyone who adds content also takes responsibility
- Self-moderating: develop consensus policy, cooperate to ensure high quality
- Use change management tools

Media "accuracy"

Analysis of polls conducted in the US June 03 - Sept 03 about common misconceptions about the war in Iraq

- 48% - evidence of links between Iraq and al Qaeda had been found
- 22% - weapons of mass destruction had been found in Iraq
- 25% - world public opinion favoured the US going to war with Iraq

The news sources the interviewees were using:

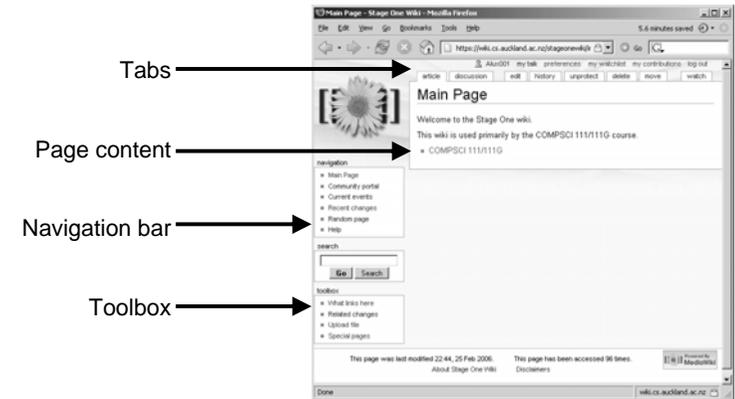

Misconceptions (of 3 listed)	FOX	CBS	ABC	NBS	CNN	Print	PBS
None	20%	30%	39%	45%	45%	53%	77%
1 or more	80%	71%	61%	55%	55%	47%	23%

MediaWiki

Free Wiki software

- Simple security model
- Used for Wikipedia, CS Dept, ...

Stage one wiki

Set up for COMPSCI 111 / 111G

- Anyone can read the wiki
- Must log in before editing
- Main pages are protected

Purpose

- Students can collaborate
- Create / compile resources for the COMPSCI 111 course
- Tool for the COMPSCI 111 community

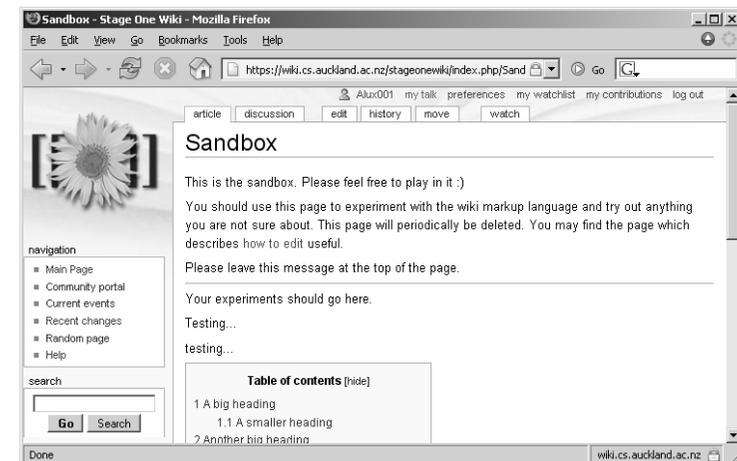

Use

- Encouraged to contribute
- Not required to contribute (after Lab 02)

Sandbox

An area to experiment and play

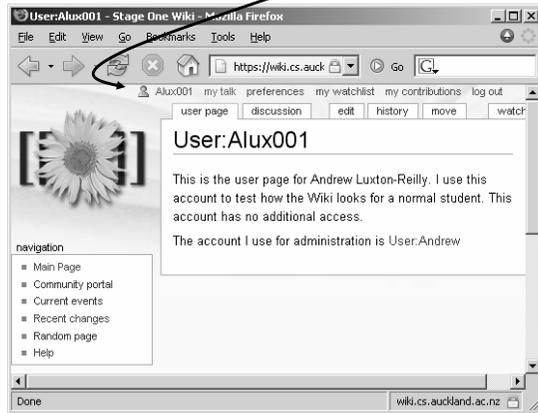

- Can test out things in the Sandbox

User page

A page is set aside for each user

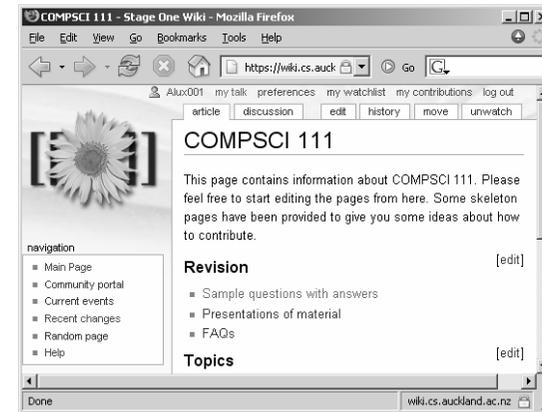

- Click on user name to access the user page
- Same as any other page in the wiki

Articles

Main content of the wiki

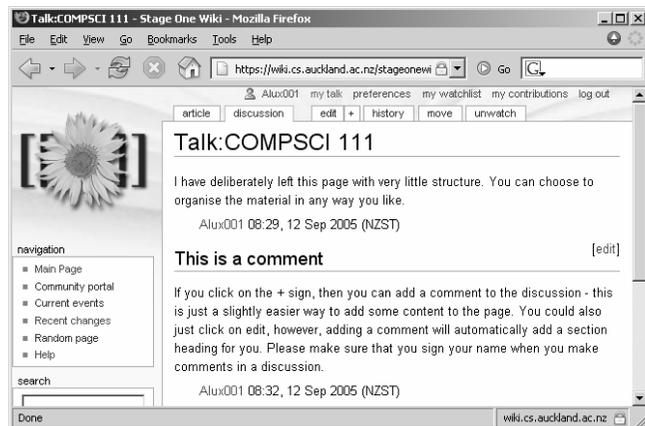

- A single page is an article about a topic

Discussion page

Each page in the wiki has an associated "talk" page

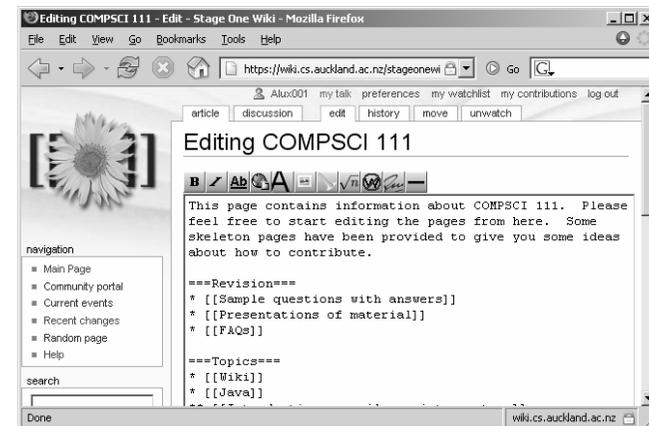

- Allows users to discuss content of a page
- Can write comments, ask questions etc. without disrupting article

Editing a page

Simply click the edit button and start making changes.

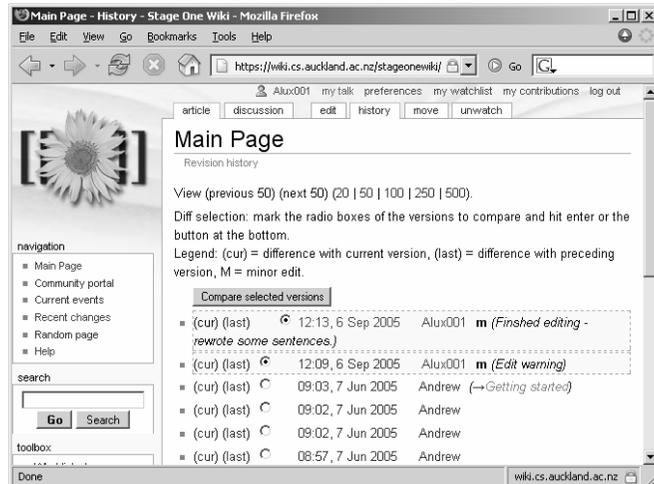

- Always preview and read the page before you save changes

Tools: History of a page

Use this to compare different versions

- Easy to see what has been added/removed/changed
